Current Affairs

- Pithora (पिथौरा) painting of the Rathwa of Gujarat saw a GI-led livelihood push in 2025–26. It is folk wall art. It is not a Mughal school.
- Madhubani (मधुबनी) carries a GI tag. It is not a UNESCO Intangible Cultural Heritage element.

UKPCS Prelims 2025

Q. UKPCS Prelims 2025, Q85

Consider the following statements about the 'Garhwal painting' style:

1. Shyamdas and Hardas came to Srinagar in May 1658 in the court of Prithivipati Shah.
2. They got the post of 'Tasbirdaar' in the court of the art-loving Garhwal kings.

A. Only 1 B. Only 2 C. 1 and 2 D. None of the above

Show answer

Logic: Both the 1658 arrival and the Tasbirdar title must be true. Ans: C (Series B provisional key). Both statements are correct. The Garhwal Pahari line later includes Mola Ram. Full UK card: Art & Culture `uttarakhand/` Topic 3.

4.1 Ancient Indian Painting

Ancient painting runs from prehistoric rock art to early historic work, before Gupta classical murals.

- Bhimbetka is in Raisen, MP. It is UNESCO 2003, with about 500 shelters.
- Layers run Palaeolithic → Mesolithic → historic. Colours are ochre red, white, green and yellow. Superimposition is used. This is not fresco.
- The discoverer is V.S. Wakankar (1957). He is not Sankalia, not Vatsa, and not V.N. Mishra as first.
- Adamgarh is on the Narmada in MP.

- Pachmarhi is in MP.
- Lakhudiyar is in Almora, Uttarakhand (“one lakh caves”).
- Kupgallu is a Karnataka Neolithic site.
- Piklihal is a Karnataka Neolithic site.
- Tekkalkota is a Karnataka Neolithic site.
- Singhanpur is in Raigarh.
- Mirzapur–Sonbhadra holds UP rock shelters.
- Jogimara in Ramgarh, Surguja (Chhattisgarh), dating to the 3rd–1st century BCE, contains the earliest surviving Indian frescoes. The scenes portray secular dancers and animals rather than Buddhist narratives.
- Sitabenga (सीताबेंगा) is in the same hills. There is a theatre / rest-house debate. Inscriptions are Brahmi–Magadhi.
- The IVC has no mural survivals. Mauryan palace paint is only literary (Megasthenes).

> Logic: The first archaeologist of Bhimbetka paintings is V.S. Wakankar.

PYQ — UPPCS Prelims 2020, Q10

Which of the following Indian Archaeologists first visited 'Bhimbetka Caves' and discovered prehistoric significance of its rock paintings?

A. Madho Swaroop Vatsa B. H.D. Sankalia C. V.S. Wakankar D. V.N. Mishra

Show answer

Ans: C — V.S. Wakankar.

4.2 Classical Painting

The classical text is the Chitrasutra (चित्रसूत्र) of the Vishnudharmottara Purana. The look matures in the Gupta–Vakataka age of the fourth to sixth centuries.

Shadanga (six limbs) — memorise all

1. Rupabheda is variety of forms / appearances.
2. Pramanam is proportion / measurement (iconometry).
3. Bhava is emotion / expression.
4. Lavanyayojana (Lavanyam) is grace / charm.
5. Sadrisyam is likeness / verisimilitude.
6. Varnikabhangam is mixing of colours and brush mastery.

- Line (rekha) is primary. Colour fills the contour.
- There is no Western linear perspective. Overlap and tiered space are used instead.

- Picture classes in Chitrasutra are satya (realistic), vainika (lyrical), nagara (नागर) (urban) and mishra (mixed).
- Chitralakshana is the Nagnajit / Tibetan recension (name-fact).
- Samarangana Sutradhara is by Bhoja (architecture + painting).
- The Gupta–Vakataka look is Ajanta Phase II and Bagh.

> Logic: Papers swap Pramanam (proportion) with Bhava (emotion) and Sadrisyam (likeness). Shadanga is not six Jain caves.

4.3 Mural Paintings

A mural is painting on the wall or ceiling of a building. Fresco buono is paint on wet lime plaster. Secco is binder on dry plaster.

- Wall prep is rough coat → fine lime → paint while damp.
- Ellora (एलोरा) is sculpture-famous. Cave 32 (Indra Sabha) has some paint. It is still not an Ajanta-class painting site.

Master Mural Sites of India

- Jogimara and Sitabenga in Surguja/Ramgarh (Chhattisgarh) preserve the earliest surviving pre-Christian Indian frescoes.
- Ajanta (अजंता) in Maharashtra contains world-renowned Buddhist rock-cut wall paintings executed between the 2nd century BCE and the 6th century CE.
- Bagh Caves (बाघ गुफाएँ) in Dhar district (Madhya Pradesh) represent Gupta-era Buddhist murals; copies of its famous Rang Mahal musical and dance panel are preserved at Gwalior.
- Pitalkhora and Kanheri in Maharashtra feature valuable Buddhist wall painting remains.
- Badami Cave 3 in Karnataka preserves Vaishnavite mural fragments from the Early Chalukya period.
- Sittanavasal in Pudukkottai district (Tamil Nadu) is a celebrated Jain cave shrine featuring lotus-pond frescoes from the Pallava and Pandya periods.
- Armamalai in Vellore (Tamil Nadu) is an ancient Jain cavern containing painted plaster remains.
- Panamalai and the Kanchi Kailasanatha Temple in Tamil Nadu preserve fine Pallava-era Shaivite murals.
- Brihadeeswara Temple at Thanjavur preserves magnificent Chola imperial frescoes around the sanctum circumambulatory path, discovered beneath later Nayaka layers in the 1930s.
- Lepakshi in Anantapur (Andhra Pradesh) and the Virupaksha Temple at Hampi (Karnataka) feature grand Vijayanagara ceiling murals.
- Traditional Kerala temple and palace murals depicting scenes from the Ramayana and Bhagavata are preserved at the Mattancherry Dutch Palace in Kochi, Padmanabhapuram Palace, and sacred temples at Ettumanoor, Vaikom, and Panayannarkavu.
- Himalayan Buddhist monastic murals flourish in the trans-Himalayan sanctuaries of Alchi Monastery in Ladakh and Tabo Monastery in the Spiti Valley of Himachal Pradesh.

- The ancient rock citadel of Sigiriya, celebrated for its celestial maiden frescoes, is located in Sri Lanka, not within India.

> Logic: Bagh is MP. Sittanavasal is Jain, not Buddhist Ajanta.

4.4 Ajanta Paintings

Waghora valley, Aurangabad, Maharashtra | UNESCO 1983 | about 30 caves

- Phase I is Hinayana / aniconic (~2nd c. BCE–1st c. CE). The caves are 9 and 10.
- Phase II is Mahayana / iconic (5th–6th c.). The patron is Vakataka Harishena.
- The best painted viharas are 1, 2, 16 and 17.
- Cave 1 — Padmapani (Avalokiteshvara, lotus, left of shrine) is the finest single image.
- Cave 1 — Vajrapani is on the right of the shrine.
- Cave 2 has painted ceilings and toilette / Jataka panels.
- Cave 16 has donor Varahadeva. It has Mahajanaka Jataka. It has the Dying Princess (Nanda's wife).
- Cave 17 has Vessantara, Chaddanta, Mahakapi and Simhala Avadana.
- The execution technique was fresco on wet lime plaster (neither oil nor gold leaf).
- Rediscovery was in 1819 by John Smith at Cave 10.

> Logic: Padmapani is Cave 1. Rediscovery is 1819 John Smith. The technique is fresco, not oil. Ajanta is not Ellora paintings.

4.5 Mughal Paintings

Mughal painting is a paper or cloth miniature with calligraphy. It is not a wall fresco.

Humayun — two Persian masters

Humayun's masters came from Shah Tahmasp's Safavid court. They worked first at Kabul, then at Delhi.

- Mir Sayyid Ali was the first ustad of the Mughal kitabkhana.
- Abd al-Samad was titled Shirin Qalam ("sweet pen"). He trained Akbar's painters.

Akbar — workshop

Fatehpur Sikri and Agra | kitabkhana

- Hindu and Muslim painters worked together (~100 hands in Abu'l Fazl).
- The look has many figures, busy story and flat space. Indian landscape sits on a Persian page.

Akbar — manuscripts

- Tuti-nama is Tales of a Parrot. It is the earliest Akbari illustrated set (Cleveland leaves).
- Hamzanama is Akbar's cloth cycle of Amir Hamza.
- Hamzanama support is cloth, not paper.
- The Hamzanama cycle comprised about 1400 large cloth-backed folios arranged into 14 volumes (daftars), executed c. 1557–73 under Akbar.
- Anwar-i-Suhaili is Persian animal fables (Kalila wa Dimna).
- Baburnama (बाबरनामा) is Babur's memoirs in Persian translation. The pictures are Akbar's, not Babur's.
- Akbarnama (अकबरनामा) is the official history by Abu'l Fazl. Basawan often drew the outline and others coloured.
- Razmnama is the Persian Mahabharata (महाभारत) made for Akbar.
- Ramayana (रामायण) (Akbari illustrated copy) is the same translation project as Razmnama.
- Tarikh-i-Alfi is the millennial history of Islam.
- Chingiznama / Timurnama (if asked) are ancestor histories. They are still Akbar atelier.

Akbar — artists

- Daswanth was the leading Hindu master. He painted dramatic scenes. Tradition says he died by suicide.
- Basawan was the composition specialist. He drew Akbarnama outlines.
- Kesu Das / Kesav Das made copies of European prints (Madonnas).
- Mukund was a Hamzanama–Akbarnama narrative hand.
- Lal was an Akbarnama / Razmnama hand.
- Miskin painted animals and crowded history pages.
- Farrukh Beg was a Persian émigré. His work is more Safavid, less busy-Indian.

Jahangir — what changes

Shift: fewer crowded stories; portrait + birds/animals + European shading. Album = muraqqa (gold border).

Jahangir — artists

- Abu'l Hasan held the title Nadir-uz-Zaman ("wonder of the age"). He painted royal portraits.
- Ustad Mansur received the imperial title Nadir-ul-Asr from Jahangir for his peerless scientific paintings of natural history (including the dodo, Siberian crane, and zebra).
- Bishandas was the likeness specialist. He was sent to Shah Abbas of Persia to paint the Shah.
- Manohar painted darbar and portraits (Akbar–Jahangir overlap).
- Govardhan (गोवर्धन) painted holy men, darbar and soft modelling.
- Daulat painted album pages. He sometimes painted other artists.
- Bichitr starts under Jahangir (Jahangir preferring a Sufi shaikh to kings). He continues under Shah Jahan.

Shah Jahan

Shift: jewel finish, architecture, formal darbar.

- Padshahnama is the official chronicle (Windsor copy is the copy).
- Dara Shikoh album is the prince's muraqqa.
- Payag painted battle and darbar.
- Balchand painted court and family portraits.
- Anupchhatar painted later portraits.

Aurangzeb

Atelier shrinks. Painters leave for Rajput, Deccan, Awadh. No new Hamzanama-scale imperial book.

> Logic: Hamzanama, Daswanth and Basawan are Akbar. Mansur, Bishandas and Abu'l Hasan are Jahangir. Padshahnama is Shah Jahan (शाहजहाँ). Baburnama pictures are Akbar (अकबर), not Babur.

Deccani painting (not Rajput, not Kangra)

The three Deccani centres are Ahmadnagar, Bijapur, and Golconda.

- Gold ground, yogini, ragamala and rich costume are typical.
- Nujum al-Ulum is the Bijapur astrology book.
- Farrukh Husain was a Bijapur court painter.

Awadh / Lucknow (UP)

18th–19th c. Nawabi | European light-and-shade on late Mughal

- Mihr Chand painted Lucknow portraits.
- Faizullah painted garden / jungle sets.
- Murshidabad is the Bengal Nawabi twin, not UP.

4.6 Rajput Paintings

Rajput painting is Hindu princely miniature of Rajasthan and Malwa. It is devotional and romantic, and flatter than Mughal work.

Fact for every school: place — artist — one famous work/theme.

- Mewar (Udaipur/Chittor) has Sahibdin (Jagat Singh I).
- Mewar books are Rasikapriya and Ramayana.
- Landmark early Mewar miniature series include the Chawand Ragamala, painted by Nasiruddin in 1605 during the reign of Rana Amar Singh.
- Marwar (Jodhpur) has robust figures and Jodhpur portraits.
- Bikaner is more Mughalised than Marwar. Ustad Ali Raza is the artist.

- Amber–Jaipur is court portrait.
- Sahib Ram painted large royal portraits at Amber–Jaipur.
- Bundi has lush plantain/lotus and Krishna-lila.
- Kotah has hunts and tigers. Rao Ram Singh and Shrinathji devotion appear here.
- Malwa has flat colour and early Ragamala (रागमाला) (1630s).
- Nimatnama of Ghiyath Shahi is Mandu cookbook pictures. It is pre-Mughal sultanate, not Akbar.
- Kishangarh is the school of Nihal Chand.
- Bani Thani is the Kishangarh famous work.
- The Bani Thani patron is Sawant Singh / Nagari Das. The type has elongated eyes. It is called the "Indian Mona Lisa."
- Nathdwara has Pichwai cloth hangings of Shrinathji. These are large temple cloth, not a pocket miniature.

Series names (separate from schools):

- Ragamala shows ragas as people (often 36: 6 ragas × 5 raginis).
- Baramasa shows twelve months.
- Nayaka-nayika shows hero/heroine moods.
- Krishna-lila and epics are also series themes.

> Logic: Bani Thani is Kishangarh / Nihal Chand, not Kangra, not Mughal.

4.7 Pahari Paintings

Pahari painting is hill Rajput miniature of Jammu, Himachal, and Garhwal. It is not Rajasthan plains painting.

Order to raata: Basohli → Guler → Kangra.

- Basohli (17th c., Jammu) is the earliest. It is bold, with hot red/yellow.
- Basohli painting is epitomized by illustrated manuscripts of Bhanudatta's Rasamanjari.
- Kripal is a Basohli artist.
- Devidasa is a Basohli artist.
- Guler (18th c.) is where Mughal softness enters.
- Pandit Seu is the Guler father.
- Manaku is Seu's son. He painted Gita Govinda (गीत गोविंद) and Bhagavata.
- Nainsukh is Seu's son. He painted Balwant Singh of Jasrota, intimate court. He is not Mewar.
- Kangra (late 18th–19th c.) is the lyrical peak. The patron is Sansar Chand.
- Kangra themes are Gita Govinda, Baramasa, Bihari Satsai and Nala–Damayanti.
- Garhwal is a Pahari school. Mola Ram (मोला राम) is the named Garhwal master; the UK origin card is 1658 Tasbirdar (Shyamdas–Hardas).

- Chamba is a Himachal hill atelier remembered for local patronage and ragamala / Vaishnava themes beside the Kangra belt.
- Mandi (मंडी) is a Himachal court school with soft Pahari colour after Guler influence.
- Kullu is a hill atelier name in the same Himachal Pahari family.
- Nurpur is a hill school often paired with Basholi–Kangra neighbourhood memory.
- Bilaspur is another Himachal hill name in the wider Pahari map — learn the place, not a separate "Basohli replacement."
- The Kangra palette is soft green/blue/pink. Basohli is intense flat primaries.
- Nainsukh is intimate court portrait + Krishna. Do not park him in Mewar.

> Logic: The order is Basohli → Guler → Kangra. Kangra is not Kishangarh. Garhwal is Pahari, not Rajasthan Rajput.

4.8 Company School

Company School painting runs about 1770–1850. East India Company officers were the patrons. Indian artists did the work.

- The function is documentary albums for British patrons (costume, trade, monument, flora/fauna).
- One Company-school centre is Calcutta.
- One Company-school centre is Patna / Patna Kalam.
- One Company-school centre is Madras.
- One Company-school centre is Murshidabad.
- One Company-school centre is Delhi.
- One Company-school centre is Lucknow (UP).
- Impey Album is Mary Impey, Calcutta, for birds.
- Shaikh Zainuddin is an Impey painter.
- Bhawani Das is an Impey painter.
- Ram Das is an Impey painter.
- Fraser Album is William Fraser, Delhi.
- Ghulam Ali Khan is the Fraser Album painter.
- Yellapah of Vellore is a south Company hand.
- Sewak Ram is a Patna Kalam painter.
- Shiva Lal is a Patna Kalam painter.
- Shiva Dayal is a Patna Kalam painter.
- Patna look is mica (abri), trades and festivals, with no Mughal gold border.
- Decline came with photography from the 1850s. It is not Bengal School.

> Logic: Company School is not British painters only. Patna Kalam is Company, not Mughal.

4.9 Modern Indian Paintings

Modern Indian painting runs from late-nineteenth-century oil through the Swadeshi revival to post-1947 modernism.

Raja Ravi Varma (1848–1906)

Travancore | oil and oleograph

- He used European oil realism + Puranic subjects.
- Famous oils are Shakuntala, Hamsa Damayanti and Ravana abducting Sita.
- The oleograph press was at Lonavala / Pune. Mass prints reached ordinary homes.
- He is not Bengal School. Bengal later reacted against this academic look.

Bengal School

The Bengal School was founded by Abanindranath Tagore at the Calcutta School of Art under E. B. Havell in the 1890s–1900s. The technique is Japanese-influenced wash. Allies include Okakura Kakuzo and Sister Nivedita.

- It is an anti-colonial revival using Mughal, Rajput and Ajanta memory.
- Abanindranath painted Bharat Mata* (1905).
- Abanindranath painted The Passing of Shah Jahan.
- Abanindranath painted Journey's End.
- Abanindranath painted Abhisarika.
- Nandalal Bose worked at Santiniketan.
- Nandalal painted Haripura Congress posters, 1938.
- Nandalal illuminated pages of the Constitution (1950).
- Benode Behari Mukherjee painted the Hindi Bhavan mural, Santiniketan.
- Ramkinkar Baij is celebrated primarily for modern Indian monumental sculpture at Santiniketan, not painting.
- Asit Kumar Haldar is Bengal wash.
- Kshitindranath Majumdar is Bengal wash.
- Abdur Rahman Chughtai is Lahore wash, Mughal lyric, not PAG.
- Gaganendranath Tagore is cubist / ink. He is not the same as Abanindranath wash.
- Rabindranath made late coloured doodles, not Bengal School doctrine.

Other Modern Artists & Movements

- Amrita Sher-Gil (1913–1941): An Indo-Hungarian painter trained in Paris, widely regarded as a pioneer of modern Indian art; her masterworks include Three Girls, Bride's Toilet, and Brahmacharis.
- Jamini Roy: Rejected academic Western realism to embrace the flattened forms, bold outlines, and indigenous pigments of rural Bengal and Kalighat pat painting; renowned for his Santhal and Christian suites.

- Kalighat Painting: A 19th-century Calcutta bazaar folk tradition characterized by rapid, rhythmic brushwork that profoundly influenced modernist painters like Jamini Roy.
- The Calcutta Group: Founded in 1943 by artists including Prodosh Das Gupta, representing one of the earliest modern artist collectives in India.
- The Progressive Artists' Group (PAG): Formed in Bombay in 1947 to forge a progressive, internationalist language for post-Independence Indian art; its founding members included M.F. Husain, S.H. Raza, F.N. Souza, K.H. Ara, H.A. Gade, and sculptor S.K. Bakre.
- Raza is Bindu.
- Husain is horses/epics.
- Souza is expressionist heads.
- Tyeb Mehta is falling figure.
- V.S. Gaitonde is abstract.
- Bhupen Khakhar is Baroda narrative.
- Lalit Kala Akademi (ललित कला अकादेमी) is 1954, New Delhi. It is the apex body for visual arts.

> Logic: Ravi Varma is not Abanindranath. PAG is 1947, not Bengal School 1900s.

Folk painting (overlap — not a second Folk topic)

Papers still match these under "painting" — list is -complete here.

Court-south (not folk, not Mughal)

- Tanjore / Thanjavur is a wood panel with gold foil and gems. Subjects are Krishna/Ganesha.
- Mysore is finer gesso. It has less gemming than Tanjore.

Folk / tribal / ritual (name–state–feature)

- Madhubani / Mithila is from Bihar. It is GI, by women, with double line. It is not UNESCO ICH.
- Madhubani fills are Bharni, Kachni, Godna and Tantrik. There is the Kohbar room.
- Warli is from Maharashtra. It is white on mud, with circle-triangle-square.
- Pithora is Gujarat Rathwa. It is wall horses. There is GI news.
- Gond is MP Pardhan. It uses dotted line.
- Jangarh Singh Shyam is the Gond artist.
- Saura is from Odisha. It is idital (इडिटाल) (not Warli).
- Phad is from Rajasthan. It is Pabuji / Devnarayan scroll.
- Bhopa is the Phad singer.
- Pattachitra is from Odisha (Puri/Raghurajpur). It is Jagannath cloth.
- Srikalahasti Kalamkari is from Andhra. It is freehand kalam for the temple.
- Machilipatnam Kalamkari is from Andhra. It is block-print for trade.
- Cheriyal (चेरियल) is Telangana narrative scrolls.
- Mata ni Pachedi is Gujarat Devi cloth.

- Bengal Patua / patachitra is narrative song-scrolls.
- Manjusha is Angika, Bihar. It is Bishahari / snake.
- Tikuli is from Patna.
- Pichwai is from Nathdwara. It is Shrinathji cloth.
- Thangka is Himalayan Buddhist cloth.
- Kolam is Tamil Nadu floor.
- Alpana is Bengal floor.
- Aipan (ऐपण) is the traditional ritual floor art of Kumaon (Uttarakhand).
- Mandana (मांडना) represents the auspicious decorative wall and floor art of Rajasthan and Malwa.
- Sanjhi is the traditional stencilled paper-cutting art of the Braj region (Mathura and Vrindavan, UP), dedicated to Radha-Krishna themes.
- Lippan Kaam is the traditional mirror-and-clay relief craft of Kutch in Gujarat.

Key Painting & Art Traditions of Uttar Pradesh

- Sanjhi Art: Flourished along the Yamuna river ghats of Mathura and Vrindavan in the Braj cultural zone.
- Awadh & Lucknow School: Evolved under the Nawabs of Awadh, blending Mughal court aesthetics with European Company School techniques.
- Mirzapur and Sonbhadra: Represent the premier prehistoric rock-art and petroglyph belt of Uttar Pradesh.
- Braj Krishna Themes: Devotional Vaishnavite motifs developed around Mathura and Vrindavan inspired major Rajasthani and Pahari miniature traditions.
- Bharat Kala Bhavan: Located on the BHU campus in Varanasi, it houses an invaluable national treasury of Indian miniature paintings.

PYQ trap — UPPCS Prelims 2019, Q117 (art form, not painting)

The book 'Venushilpa' by Chitracharya Upendra Maharathi relates to which of the following form of arts?

A. Jewellery B. Painting C. Bamboo art D. Marble curving

Show answer

Ans: C — Bamboo art. Painting is the distractor.
