8.0 One clear picture — three streams of popular protest

This chapter is not one long list. Hold three separate streams; every card below plugs into one of them.

Stream	Core grievance	Typical method	Arc across the chapter
Peasant	Rent, revenue, eviction, indigo/tinkathia, sharecrop share	Legal league → satyagraha → sharecropper strike → armed struggle	Pabna (1873) → Champaran/Kheda/Eka (1917–22) → Bardoli (1928) → Tebhaga / Telangana (1946–51)
Tribal	Land, forest rights, diku moneylenders, begar (बेगार)	Millenarian faith + armed rising	Kol (1831) → Santhal (1855) → Munda (1899) → Tana Bhagat / Rampa (1914–24)
Labour	Wages, hours, union recognition (मान्यता)	Strike → union → legislation → party-linked federation	Madras Labour Union (1918) → AITUC (1920) → post-1947 party-wise split (INTUC/UTUC/BMS/CITU)

- Peasant and tribal streams overlap in method (both used armed resistance early, satyagraha later) but differ in the target: rent-collecting landlords/zamindars for peasants, diku outsiders and forest law for tribals.

- The peasant stream has a long tail into Independence: Tebhaga (1946–47) and Telangana (1946–51) are the most radical closing chapters, both fought by Communist-led Kisan Sabhas rather than Congress.
- The labour stream is organisational, not agrarian — unions, not land. Keep AITUC here as a founding-fact fact only (year, place, first president); the deeper left-party politics around labour (Workers and Peasants Party, Congress Socialist Party, later CITU-era realignments) has its one home in Topic 12.

> Logic: If a question names a Nizam's State / Andhra Mahasabha / Razakars, it is Telangana, not Tebhaga. If it names a trade union federation's party tag, check Topic 12 first for the fuller politics; this topic keeps only the union's birth facts.

8.1 Early Uprisings Chronology

Use this table only to order revolts. Causes, course and results sit in the cards that follow.

Revolt	Year	Region	Leader tag
Sanyasi–Fakir	~1763–1800	Bengal–Bihar	Majnu Shah / Bhawani Pathak
Bengal Sepoy (Buxar (बक्सर) field)	1764	Bengal	Battalion joins Mir Qasim (मीर कासिम)
Vellore Mutiny	1806	Vellore	Sepoy religious-custom spark (Barlow)
Waghera	1818–19	Baroda	Waghera chiefs vs Company/Gaekwad

Munda Ulgulan	1899–1900	Chotanagpur	Birsa Munda
Tana Bhagat	1914	Chotanagpur	Jatra Oraon
Moplah	1921	Malabar	Variyamkunnath / Ali Musliyar
Eka	1921–22	Awadh (UP)	Madari Pasi
Bardoli	1928	Gujarat	Vallabhbhai Patel
Tebhaga	1946–47	Bengal	Sharecroppers + Kisan Sabha / CPI

- Chronology: Sanyasi, then Indigo, then Kuka, then Pabna.
- Ahom 1815 is the wrong pair; correct tags are Khasi 1829, Kol 1831 and Santhal 1855.

> Logic: Chronology runs Sanyasi → Indigo → Kuka → Pabna. Do not stop at the table — each revolt below has its own points.

Sanyasi–Fakir Revolt (~1763–1800)

Period: ~1763–1800 (peak after the Bengal famine of 1770)

Region: Bengal and Bihar

Leaders: Majnu Shah (Fakir), Musa Shah, Bhawani Pathak, Devi Chaudhurani

Causes

- Hindu sanyasis and Muslim fakirs traditionally moved in armed bands, collecting alms and customary contributions from villages.
- After Plassey (प्लासी) the Company treated these bands as a threat to order and revenue.
- Company rules restricted their movement, taxed pilgrim routes, and cut their right to collect village contributions.
- The Bengal famine of 1770 left peasants desperate. Many uprooted cultivators joined the bands for survival.

Course

- Rebels attacked Company kuthis (trading posts), government treasuries and loyal zamindars across Bengal and Bihar.
- The rising ran through Warren Hastings (वारेन)' years and continued in waves into the 1780s–90s.
- Company troops fought a long, scattered campaign of hit-and-run raids rather than one decisive battle.

Results

- The rising was gradually crushed only towards the end of the eighteenth century as Company control tightened.
- Bankim Chandra Chatterjee's novel Anandamath (आनंदमठ) (1882) is set against this background.
- The song (सोंग) Vande Mataram comes from that novel.
- In the four-revolt chronology set this is the earliest revolt.

> Logic: Sanyasi is late eighteenth century, not 1859. It comes before Indigo, Kuka and Pabna.

Vellore Mutiny (1806)

Year: 1806

Region: Vellore (Madras Presidency (प्रेसीडेंसी))

Leaders: Sepoy garrison; Governor-General (गवर्नर-जनरल) Sir George Barlow was in office

Causes

- New dress and appearance rules offended religious custom among sepoys at Vellore.
- The fort also held Tipu Sultan (टीपू सुल्तान)'s family, which added political tension to the garrison.

Course

- On 10 July 1806 sepoys rose, killed British officers, and briefly seized the fort.
- British troops from Arcot under Colonel Gillespie crushed the rising the same day.

Results

- The mutiny was suppressed quickly and remained local.
- It is an early sepoy-custom rising — a preview theme for 1857, not part of the Revolt of 1857 itself.

> Logic: Vellore = 1806, Barlow. It is not Meerut (मेरठ) 1857 and not a peasant league.

Kuka (Namdhari) Revolt (~1872)

Year: ~1872 (Malerkotla action)

Region: Punjab (Bhaini Sahib, Ludhiana; Malerkotla)

Leaders: Baba Ram Singh; the sect was earlier shaped by Balak Singh and Bhagat Jawaharmal (Sian Sahab) in the 1840s; Ram Singh was later exiled to Rangoon (1872) and died there (1885)

Causes

- The Namdhari / Kuka movement began as a Sikh socio-religious reform preaching simplicity, cow protection, boycott (बहिष्कार) of British goods, and opposition to caste display.
- Baba Ram Singh built a strong following around his centre at Bhaini Sahib; followers were called Kukas from their cry in kirtan.
- Cow-slaughter by butchers, seen as an attack on Sikh-Hindu sentiment, turned the sect's reform zeal into direct action.

Course

- In 1872 a Kuka band attacked butchers at Malerkotla after cow-slaughter incidents.
- British officer Cowan responded by having dozens of Kukas blown from guns without a proper trial.

Results

- Baba Ram Singh was deported to Rangoon, ending the movement's organised leadership.
- Place Kuka after Indigo (1859–60) and before Pabna (1873) — the standard four-revolt chronology.

> Logic: Kuka ≠ 1857. Kuka ≠ Pabna. Year tag for chronology is 1872.
> [!TIP] Exam Anchor (UPPCS 2025 Q25): Chronological order of key revolts: Sanyasi Revolt (1763–1800) → Indigo Revolt (1859–60) → Kuka Movement (1840s–1872) → Pabna Peasant Uprising (1873–76).

8.2 Peasant Movements and Revolts

- Peasant movements grew from rent hikes, eviction (bedakhli), indigo contracts, and unpaid labour (begar).
- Later they also grew from Kisan Sabha, Congress and left politics.
- Early cases often used leagues and courts, as at Pabna.
- Later cases used satyagraha (सत्याग्रह), as at Champaran, Kheda and Bardoli, or sharecropper strikes, as at Tebhaga.

Pabna Agrarian League (1873–85)

Year: 1873–85

Region: Yusufshahi pargana (परगना), Pabna district, Bengal

Leaders: Ishan Chandra Roy, Khoodi Mollah, Shambhu Nath Pal

Causes

- Zamindars raised rents illegally above the recorded rate, forged occupancy papers, and threatened eviction of tenants who resisted.

Course

- Peasants formed an agrarian league in 1873. They refused illegal cesses, went to court, and used village solidarity rather than arms. Their famous legal declaration was that they wished "to be the ryots of Her Majesty the Queen and of Her only" (demanding royal protection under the British crown against zamindari extortion).
- The movement stayed largely legal and organised — not a tribal war and not an indigo-factory riot.
- Indian publicists such as R.C. Dutt and sections of the Bengal press backed the ryots' cause.

Results

- Pressure from this long struggle fed into the Bengal Tenancy Act, 1885, which gave occupancy tenants some legal protection.
- Pabna ran 1873–85 and comes last among Sanyasi–Indigo–Kuka–Pabna.

> Logic: Pabna = zamindar rent, Bengal, 1873–85. Deccan 1875 = moneylenders. Indigo 1859 = European planters.

Eka Movement (1921–22)

Year: 1921–22 (2019 list uses 1922)

Region: Northern Awadh — Hardoi, Barabanki, Bahraich, Sitapur (also Unnao / Kheri belt)

Leader: Madari Pasi

Causes

- Awadh tenants faced high rents, illegal nazrana (premium), unpaid begar, and bedakhli (eviction) at the hands of taluqdars.

Course

- Eka means unity. Peasants swore — often on Ganga (गंगा) water — to pay only the recorded rent, to take a receipt, and not to leave the holding.
- They did not refuse rent outright. Under high inflation they pressed for cash collection of the recorded demand rather than oppressive produce-share rents (often ~50% above recorded rates).
- Congress and Khilafat (खिलाफत) volunteers helped launch the movement. When it turned more militant, Congress pulled back.
- Madari Pasi, a Pasi (depressed-caste) leader, kept a strong local command after Congress withdrew support.

Results

- The rising was suppressed by 1922. It is not the 1918 UP Kisan Sabha and not Tebhaga.

> Logic: Eka = Awadh 1921–22 + Madari Pasi. Dwivedi is 1918 UP Kisan Sabha, not Eka.

Champaran Satyagraha (1917)

Year: 1917

Region: Champaran, Bihar

Issue:Tinkathia indigo (peasants had to plant indigo on 3/20 of the holding)

Causes

- European planters still forced peasants into the tinkathia indigo contract long after the 1859 Bengal Indigo Revolt.

Course

- Rajkumar Shukla brought Gandhi (गांधी) to Champaran. This became Gandhi's first satyagraha in India.
- Gandhi held a public inquiry and recorded peasant statements documenting planter abuses.

Results

- The inquiry broke the tinkathia system.
- The Champaran Agrarian Act, 1918 ended the old planter compulsion.
- Do not merge this with the Indigo Revolt of 1859–60 (Bengal, Biswas brothers).

> Logic: Champaran 1917 = Gandhi + tinkathia + Bihar. Indigo Revolt 1859–60 = Bengal + Biswas brothers.

Kheda Satyagraha (1918)

Year: 1918

Region: Kheda, Gujarat

Leaders: Gandhi, Vallabhbhai Patel, Indulal Yagnik

Causes

- Crop failure and plague made the fixed revenue demand unjust; peasants asked for remission.

Course

- It ran as a no-revenue satyagraha — a dress rehearsal in method for Bardoli 1928 (बारडोली).

- Patel's rural organisational skill was first seen here, building village-level discipline for withholding revenue.

Results

- The government granted partial relief on the revenue demand.

> Logic: Kheda 1918 ≠ Bardoli 1928. Both are Gujarat revenue satyagrahas; Bardoli is the bigger Patel card.

Oudh (Awadh) Kisan Sabha (October 1920)

Year: October 1920, Pratapgarh

Leader: Baba Ramchandra (mass mobiliser); Congress and Home Rule (होम रूल) volunteers helped organise

Demands: end to nazrana (illegal premium), reduced begar, security of tenure against bedakhli

Causes

- Awadh tenants faced illegal nazrana premiums, unpaid begar, and insecurity of tenure through bedakhli eviction by taluqdars.
- This is a separate body from the 1918 United Provinces Kisan Sabha of Dwivedi and Gauri Shankar Mishra. Do not merge the two founding dates.

Course

- Late 1919 saw Nai-Dhobi Band social boycott of exploiting landlords in Pratapgarh estates; Jhinguri Singh and Durgapal were early village organisers before Baba Ramchandra dominated the stage.
- Baba Ramchandra, a former indentured labourer returned from Fiji, held huge Awadh village meetings using Ramayana-style oral recitation to draw crowds.
- The UP Provincial Congress Committee took formal notice and linked the Sabha to the wider Non-Cooperation (असहयोग) mobilisation of 1920–21.
- A young Jawaharlal Nehru (जवाहरलाल नेहरू) toured Pratapgarh, Rae Bareli and Faizabad villages in these months and later called the experience his political education, but he did not found the Sabha.
- Militancy grew faster than Congress control; taluqdar houses were looted in places, and Congress leaders tried to keep the movement non-violent and constitutional.

Results

- The more radical Eka Movement (1921–22) under Madari Pasi grew partly out of this same Awadh discontent when Congress pulled back from the sharper edge of tenant anger.

> Logic: 1918 UP Kisan Sabha (Dwivedi) → October 1920 Oudh Kisan Sabha (Ramchandra) → 1921–

> 22 Eka (Madari Pasi). Three different Awadh-belt bodies, three different years.

All India Kisan Sabha (1936)

- Founded as All India Kisan Congress at Lucknow (April 1936) and soon renamed All India Kisan Sabha.
- Swami Sahajanand Saraswati was President; N.G. Ranga was General Secretary. Indulal Yagnik helped publicity.
- Sahajanand founded the Bihar Provincial Kisan Sabha earlier and is tagged Kisan-Pran for devoted peasant work; papers linked to him include Hunkar and Lok Sangraha.
- A second AIKS session ran with the Congress Faizpur session (1936), chaired for AIKS by N.G. Ranga. The Congress agrarian manifesto for 1937 elections drew heavily on the Kisan Sabha agenda.
- Demands included zamindari abolition, occupancy rights, and an end to illegal cesses.
- Sahajanand is a 1936 figure. He did not found the UP Kisan Sabha in 1918.

> Logic: AIKS 1936 = Sahajanand. UP Kisan Sabha 1918 = Indra Narayan Dwivedi.

8.3 Peasant Leaders

Leader	Movement / tag	Do not confuse with
Indra Narayan Dwivedi	UP Kisan Sabha, 1918 (with Gauri Shankar Mishra; Malaviya (मालवीय) support)	Baba Ramchandra
Gauri Shankar Mishra	Co-organiser of the 1918 Sabha	—
Baba Ramchandra	Awadh peasant mobiliser; Oudh Kisan Sabha stream (~1920)	1918 founder answer
Madari Pasi	Eka, 1921–22	Dwivedi
Swami Sahajanand Saraswati	AIKS 1936 stream	1918 UP Sabha
Digambar & Bishnu Biswas	Indigo, Nadia	Birsa
Vallabhbhai Patel	Bardoli 1928	Moplah

- In February 1918 the United Provinces Kisan Sabha was formed at Lucknow (लखनऊ).
- Indra Narayan Dwivedi and Gauri Shankar Mishra organised it. Madan Mohan Malaviya gave support.

- By 1919 it claimed hundreds of village branches. It asked for occupancy rights, recorded rents, and an end to begar.
- Baba Ramchandra, a former indentured labourer from Fiji, then a sadhu, mobilised Awadh peasants with huge meetings. He is the mass leader of the Oudh Kisan Sabha stream (~1920), not the 1918 "formed by" answer.
- In 1920 Non-Cooperators helped launch the Oudh Kisan Sabha after a split over methods.
- Nehru (नेहरू) toured Awadh villages in 1920–21. He worked with peasants; he did not found the 1918 Sabha.
- Indra Narayan Dwivedi founded the 1918 UP Kisan Sabha; Ramchandra, Sahajanand and Nehru are common traps.

> Logic: 1918 = Dwivedi. Ramchandra = Awadh mass leader. Sahajanand = AIKS 1936.
>
> [!TIP] Exam Anchor (UPPCS 2023 Q41): The United Provinces Kisan Sabha was formed in February 1918 by Indra Narayan Dwivedi, Gauri Shankar Mishra, and supported by Madan Mohan Malaviya. Baba Ramchandra later organized the Oudh Kisan Sabha in October 1920.

8.4 Indigo Revolt (1859–60)

Year: 1859–60

Region: Bengal — Nadia, Jessore, Pabna, Khulna, Murshidabad

Leaders: Digambar Biswas and Bishnu Biswas of Chaugacha, Nadia

Viceroy (वायसराय): Canning

Causes

- European planters forced ryots to grow indigo on their best plots at a price that did not cover cost.
- Planters gave cash advances (dadon) that trapped ryots in endless debt. Refusal to sow brought beatings, cattle seizure, and eviction.

Course

- The spark is often placed at Govindpur in Nadia. In 1859 the Biswas brothers of Nadia refused to sow indigo. Village after village followed their lead.
- Ryots stopped planting, socially boycotted planter agents, and in places attacked indigo factories.
- The Hindu Patriot under Harish Chandra Mukherjee publicised planter crimes; missionaries also wrote against the system.
- Dinabandhu Mitra (मित्र) wrote the play Nil Darpan (1860) dramatising the ryots' suffering.
- Rev. James Long was fined and jailed for publishing the English translation of the play.

Results

- The government appointed the Indigo Commission, 1860 (Seton-Karr), which held that indigo was grown only under force.
- Forced indigo collapsed in large parts of Bengal — this is treated as a successful peasant revolt (किसान). Separately, by the early twentieth century indigo also lost world-market value because of synthetic dyes.
- It remained a ryot (रैयत) versus European planter fight, distinct from a tribal forest war and from Champaran 1917.

> Logic: Indigo = 1859–60 Bengal + Biswas brothers + Commission 1860. 2025 Q25: between Sanyasi and Kuka. 2025 Q127: after Awadh 1856 (अवध), before Second Afghan War 1878.

8.5 Deccan Riots (1875)

Year: 1875Region:Poona and Ahmednagar districts (Maharashtra Deccan)

Target: Moneylenders (sahukars / Marwari and Gujarati creditors) — not indigo factories

Causes

- Ryotwari (रैयतवाड़ी) revenue was high and had to be paid in cash even after a bad harvest.
- The American Civil War created a cotton boom; when it ended, prices crashed and peasants could not repay loans taken during the boom.
- Moneylenders took land, ornaments and enforced debt bonds, and courts usually sided with creditors.

Course

- Riots began in May 1875 at Supa and spread through the Poona–Ahmednagar belt (Koregaon and nearby villages).
- Crowds attacked sahukar houses and burnt bond papers. The aim was to wipe out the written debt, not random massacre.

Results

- The Deccan Riots Commission inquired into the causes.
- The Deccan Agriculturists' Relief Act, 1879 tried to check usury and ease court procedure (प्रक्रिया) for ryots.
- Deccan 1875 stayed a short debt riot, unlike Pabna's long rent-league struggle or Bardoli's 1928 no-tax satyagraha.

> Logic: Deccan 1875 = moneylenders + Relief Act 1879. Not 1857, not Birsa, not Bardoli.

8.6 Santhal Rebellion (1855–56)

Year: 1855–56 | Region: Damin-i-Koh (दामिन-ए-कोह) / Rajmahal hills (Bhagalpur–Rajmahal belt; later Santhal Parganas / संथाल परगना)

Leaders: brothers Sidhu, Kanhu, Chand and Bhairav Murmu (tag: Sidhu and Kanhu)

Causes

- The Company had settled Santhals in Damin-i-Koh (1832) [दामिन-ए-कोह: राजमहल पहाड़ियों की तलहटी] to clear forest and pay rent.
- Outsiders called dikus (दिकू) (दिकू - बाहरी शोषक, साहूकार व ज़मींदार) — zamindars, mahajans (महाजन), traders, police and railway contractors — seized Santhal land and trapped them in debt.
- Courts and police backed the exploiters, and traditional village headmen lost their customary authority.

Course

- On 30 June 1855 at Bhognadih, Sidhu and Kanhu declared the Hul (हूल - सशस्त्र क्रांति / विद्रोह), claiming a divine command to end diku rule.
- Rebel bands attacked moneylenders, zamindars and symbols of Company power. The rising spread fast across the Santhal belt.
- The British declared martial law and crushed the Hul by 1856; Sidhu was killed and Kanhu was captured.

Results

- Act XXXVII of 1855 created a separate Santhal Parganas district with a simpler administration. Early in the Hul, Santhal bands defeated Major Burrough. After suppression the government also made it illegal for a Santhal to transfer land to a non-Santhal.
- Place Santhal before Indigo (1859) and long before Munda Ulgulan (~1900).

> Logic: Santhal = 1855–56 + Sidhu–Kanhu + *diku. 2018 pair is correct. 2019 code = 1 (1855–56). Not Birsa. Not 1857.
> [!TIP] Exam Anchor (UPPCS 2019 Q18): Chronology & years match: Santhal Rebellion (1855–56) → Pabna Peasant Uprising (1873–85) → Tana Bhagat Movement (1914) → Eka Movement (1921–22).

8.7 Kol Rebellion (1831–32)

Year: 1831–32Region:Chotanagpur — Ranchi, Bundu, Tamar, Palamau, Singhbhum

Leaders: Buddhu Bhagat, Joa Bhagat, Bindrai Manki, Surga Munda and other Kol chiefs

Causes

- Company records used "Kol" for Hos, Mundas, Oraons and related groups of the Chotanagpur plateau.
- Tribal land was given to outsider farmers and thikedars. Moneylenders and new revenue rules broke customary rights.

Course

- Armed resistance exploded in 1831. Rebels attacked outsider settlements, moneylenders and police posts.
- The rising spread through the Ranchi–Singhbhum tract and was put down by 1832 with Company troops.

Results

- The same belt later produced Birsa's Ulgulan (1899–1900). Kol is two generations earlier.
- Kol revolt is correctly tagged 1831.

> Logic: Kol = 1831 Chotanagpur. Not Santhal 1855. Not Khasi 1829 (खासी) (Tirut Singh). Not Moplah.

8.8 Munda Ulgulan (1899–1900)

Year: 1899–1900

Region: Chotanagpur — Ranchi / Khunti belt

Leader: Birsa Munda (born 15 November 1875, Ulihatu; died 9 June 1900, Ranchi jail)

Causes

- Ulgulan (उलगुलान) means Great Tumult (महान हलचल / महाविद्रोह). Mundas held land under khuntkatti (खूँटकट्टी प्रथा) (खूँटकट्टी - सामूहिक/संयुक्त भूमि व्यवस्था); landlords, contractors, jagirdars and colonial law ate into that right.
- Forced labour, forest rules and moneylender debt added to the anger. Missionary activity created religious ferment on top of the agrarian grievance.
- Birsa first came under Christian influence, then left it, and preached a new Birsait (बिरसाइत) faith of one God and a golden age without dikus (दिकू).

Course

- Followers are called Birsaites. Traditional joint-clearing tenure is Khuntkatti (Mundari / खूँटकट्टी प्रथा). Birsa is remembered as Dharti Aaba (धरती आबा) / Jagat Pita (जगत पिता) and preached one God (Sing Bonga / सिंगबोंगा). The long prior struggle is also called the Sardari fight. The slogan memory is Abua raj etejana (अबुआ राज एतेजाना — महारानी राज तुंदु जाना: हमारा राज स्थापित हो).

- On Christmas 1899 Birsaites attacked churches, police stations and outsider property. Fighting followed at Sail Rakab and nearby hills.
- British troops suppressed the rising. Birsa was captured around early February 1900 (often keyed 3 February) and died in jail in June 1900.

Results

- The revolt pushed the colonial state towards tribal land protection.
- The Chotanagpur Tenancy Act, 1908 later recognised khuntkatti in law.
- Janjatiya Gaurav Diwas is observed on 15 November (Birsa's birth anniversary).

> Logic: Birsa = Munda, 1899–1900. Sidhu–Kanhu = Santhal, 1855. Do not swap leaders or years.

8.9 Tribal Revolts and Tribal Leaders

Paika Rebellion (1817)

Year: 1817

Region: Khurda / Puri (पुरी) / Cuttack, Odisha

Leader: Buxi Jagabandhu Bidyadhar Mahapatra (military chief of the Raja (राजा) of Khurda)

Causes

- Paikas were Odisha's traditional militia holding service tenures (nish-kar jagirs) under the Khurda raja.
- After the British took Odisha (1803), a new land settlement stripped Paika privileges; salt (लवणाध्यक्ष) tax and revenue pressure added to the anger.
- Jagabandhu's own estate at Rodanga was taken by the Company, giving him a personal grievance alongside the wider Paika discontent.

Course

- In March 1817 Jagabandhu led Paikas and peasants against Company posts. The rising spread through Khurda, Puri and nearby tracts.

Results

- The rising was suppressed by 1818. Jagabandhu remained in hiding and surrendered later (1825).
- Paika Rebellion leader: Jagabandhu Bidyadhar Mahapatra.

> Logic: Paika = 1817 Odisha + Jagabandhu. Not Birsa. Not Edachena Kungan.

Bareilly Revolt (1816)

Year: 1816

Region: Bareilly / Rohilkhand

Leader: Mufti Muhammad Aiwaz (Iwaz)

Causes

- The Company tightened police control and imposed a new house / police tax in Rohilkhand, sparking protest in 1816.

Course

- Mufti Muhammad Aiwaz led the opposition. Crowds clashed with the British at Bareilly.

Results

- Mufti Muhammad Aiwaz led the 1816 Bareilly revolt.
- It is not the 1857 Bareilly of Khan Bahadur Khan.

> Logic: 2024 Bareilly = Aiwaz, 1816. 1857 Bareilly = Khan Bahadur Khan.

Sylhet Revolt

Region: Sylhet

Leader (2024 tag):Radharam

Causes

- Company revenue demands and tightening control over the Sylhet frontier provoked local resistance in the late eighteenth century.

Course

- Radharam, the zamindar/chief name used in the UPPCS match list, led the local rising against Company authority.

Results

- Sylhet revolt leader: Radharam, not Edachena Kungan.

> Logic: Sylhet = Radharam. Malabar = Edachena Kungan.

Malabar (Edachena Kungan) and Pazhassi stream

Leader (2024 tag):Edachena Kungan (Kungan Nair)

Region: Malabar / Wayanad

Causes

- Malabar passed to the British, who imposed new revenue and forest control that clashed with local chiefs' customary authority.

Course

- Edachena Kungan was a commander of Pazhassi Raja (Kerala Varma) in the guerrilla war against the British in Malabar–Wayanad (c. 1800–05).
- Pazhassi resisted Company revenue and forest control after Malabar passed to the British.

Results

- Pazhassi Raja died in 1805, ending the guerrilla phase.
- Malabar revolt leader in match lists: Edachena Kungan.
- The 1921 Moplah mass rising is a different event (tenants + Khilafat), with mass leaders Ali Musliyar and Variyamkunnath Kunjahammed Haji.
- When the list is Paika / Bareilly / Malabar / Sylhet, mark Malabar = Edachena. When the question is 1921 chronology, mark Moplah 1921 (मोपला).

> Logic: Two Malabar tags — Edachena for the 2024 match; 1921 Moplah for year/last-event questions.

Ahom Rising (1828)

Year: 1828 (not 1815)

Region: Assam

Leader: Gomdhar Konwar (Ahom prince); Dhananjay Borgohain associated

Causes

- After the First Anglo-Burmese War and the Treaty of Yandabo (1826), the British stayed in Assam instead of restoring Ahom rule, angering the Ahom nobility.

Course

- In 1828 Gomdhar Konwar was proclaimed king with the aim of reviving the Ahom monarchy (राजतंत्र).

Results

- The rising was crushed. Later plots (around 1830, Piyoli Phukan / Dhananjay line) also failed.
- Ahom 1815 is the wrong pair; 1828 is correct. 1815 is a trap (do not confuse with the Nepal War of 1814–16).

> Logic: Ahom = ~1828. 1815 is incorrect.

Khasi Revolt (1829)

Year: 1829

Region: Khasi hills (Meghalaya); Nongkhlaw

Leader: Tirot Sing / Tirut Singh

Causes

- The British wanted a road from Guwahati to Sylhet through the Khasi hills. An agreement with Tirot Sing of Nongkhlaw broke down.

Course

- In 1829 Tirot Sing attacked British parties. Fighting continued into the early 1830s.

Results

- Tirot Sing was captured (1833) and died in Dhaka jail (1835).
- Khasi revolt is correctly tagged 1829.

> Logic: Khasi 1829 = Tirut Singh. Kol 1831. Santhal 1855.

Tana Bhagat Movement (1914)

Year: 1914

Region: Chotanagpur (Oraon country)

Leader: Jatra Oraon (Jatra Bhagat) of Chingri village

Causes

- Tana means to pull (pulling out evil spirits). It began as an Oraon socio-religious purification movement: no liquor, no meat, no ghosts.

Course

- The movement then turned against landlords, begar and colonial rent. Tana Bhagats refused illegal cesses.
- Later some Tana Bhagats joined the Non-Cooperation climate (khadi (खादी), no-rent).

Results

- The  year remains 1914, the founding date of the movement.
- Tana Bhagat movement is correctly tagged 1914.

> Logic: Tana Bhagat 1914 ≠ Eka 1922 ≠ Pabna 1873. Oraon, not Munda/Birsa.

Rampa / Manyam Rebellion (1922–24)

Year: 1922–24

Region: Agency tracts of East Godavari / Visakhapatnam (Andhra)

Leader: Alluri Sitarama Raju

Causes

- Forest laws, muthadar exploitation and toddy/tax pressure hit the hill people of the Rampa country.

Course

- Alluri Sitarama Raju led a guerrilla war. The Non-Cooperation years supplied the political climate; the fight itself was armed.

Results

- He was killed in 1924. Do not give him the Paika 1817 slot.

> Logic: Alluri = Rampa 1922–24. Jagabandhu = Paika 1817.

Other tribal / frontier risings (match extras)

Pagal Panthi (1820s, Sherpur / Mymensingh)

- Cause: Zamindars pressed rent and dues on Garo (गारो)–Hajong peasants in the Sherpur–Mymensingh tract.
- Course: A religious-agrarian sect under Karam Shah, then Tipu Shah, organised peasant resistance against the zamindars.
- Result: The rising stayed a local agrarian-religious protest, remembered mainly as a match-list leader tag.

- Cause: Dispossessed jungle zamindars and tribal paiks lost land and livelihood as the Company tightened revenue in the Jungle Mahals.
- Course: Armed bands under leaders such as Durjan Singh raided the Midnapore–Bankura belt.
- Result: Company forces suppressed the rising by the turn of the century.

Bhil rising, Khandesh (~1818–31)

- Cause: The Maratha (मराठा) collapse and Company pacification measures disrupted Bhil autonomy in Khandesh.
- Course: Bhil chiefs, including Sewaram, resisted Company control through the 1820s.
- Result: Company control was gradually established. A later, separate Bhil satyagraha followed under Govind Guru (गुरु) at Mangarh, 1913, in the Banswara–Sunth belt.

Khond rising, Ghumsar (mid-nineteenth century)

- Cause: Colonial interference with Khond land rights and suppression of mariah (human sacrifice) rites angered the community.
- Course: Chakra Bisoi led resistance in the Odisha hills / Ghumsar tract.
- Result: The rising was contained by colonial forces; it remains a leader-tag fact for the Khond hills.

Ramosi rising (1820s, Western Ghats (पश्चिमी घाट))

- Cause: The fall of the Peshwa (पेशवा) left Ramosi hill-watch communities without their traditional livelihood and status.
- Course: Umaji Naik led Ramosi unrest against the new British administration.
- Result: The rising was suppressed; Umaji Naik was later captured and executed.

Wahabi (anti-British edge — full stream in Topic 6)

- Cause/Course: Sayyid Ahmad of Rae Bareli built a militant revivalist network (inspired in India by Shah Waliullah's lineage of reform). He briefly held Peshawar (~1830) and died at Balakot (1831). After his death Patna became the main Indian centre (Inayat Ali, Wilayat Ali and others).
- Result: A long underground challenge to Company power; do not confuse with Aligarh (अलीगढ़) loyalism.

Faraizi (Bengal)

- Cause: Haji Shariatullah of Faridpur founded the Faraizi sect for radical religious–social change among Bengal Muslims.
- Course: Son Dudu Miyan organised followers against English and zamindar pressure (~1818–1862).
- Result: Many followers later merged into the Wahabi stream.

Velu Thampi (Travancore)

- Cause: Wellesley (वेलेज़ली) forced Travancore into subsidiary alliance (सहायक संधि) (1805); subsidy arrears and a harsh Resident angered the court.
- Course: Diwan Velu Thampi rose with Nair support against the British.
- Result: The rising was crushed; it remains the Kerala pre-1857 Diwan-revolt tag.

Vasudev Balwant Phadke / Ramosi Krishak Jatha

- Cause: Early revolutionary (क्रांतिकारी) anger at colonial rule in western India.
- Course: Phadke (1845–83) organised Ramosi hill-people into a fighting force and founded a Ramosi farmers' group.
- Result: He was captured and died in custody (1883). Keep him distinct from Umaji Naik's earlier Ramosi unrest.

Gadakari rising (Kolhapur, 1844)

- Cause: Hereditary Maratha fort servants (gadakaris) faced harsh revenue, loss of army (सेना) berths and mamlatdar control of land.
- Course: They rose at Kolhapur in 1844.

- Result: British troops suppressed the rising after hard fighting.

Waghera (Baroda, 1818–19)

- Cause: Pressure from the Gaekwad backed by the Company.
- Course: Waghera chiefs attacked British territory in 1818–19.
- Result: Peace treaty ~1820.

Ho rising (1820–21)

- Cause: Colonial intrusion in the Singhbhum / Chotanagpur Ho belt.
- Course: Ho tribals rose in 1820–21.
- Result: Order was restored only after prolonged military pressure; the belt stayed disturbed into the 1830s.

Khairwar (1874)

- Cause: Colonial and moneylender pressure on Khairwar tribal cultivators in the Chotanagpur fringe.
- Course: Bhagirath Manjhi led the 1874 rising.
- Result: The rising was suppressed; it survives mainly as a leader–year match tag.

Surendra Sai (Sambalpur)

- Cause: Dynastic claim to Sambalpur against British settlement.
- Course: Long anti-British guerrilla struggle; he surrendered in 1862.
- Result: A standard Odisha match-list name.

Bhumij (Jungle Mahals, ~1832–33)

- Leader: Ganga Narain.
- Cause: Inheritance/zamindari conflict plus British and outsider pressure in Barabhum / Jungle Mahals.
- Result: Armed rising suppressed; keep distinct from Kol Buddhu Bhagat.

Govind Guru — Lasodia / Samp Sabha

- Cause: Social reform among Bhils of Mewar (मेवाड़)–Bagar (बागड़)–nearby states.
- Course: Govind Guru (Lasodhiya) founded Samp Sabha (1883) to organise Bhils; later remembered with the Mangarh sacrifice line.
- Result: Reform-to-protest arc among western Indian Bhils.

Thakkar Bapa / Jadonang / Lokhande (identity tags)

- Amritlal Vithaldas Thakkar (Thakkar Bapa) popularised the word Adivasi for tribals; he was General Secretary of the Harijan (हरिजन) Sevak Sangh.
- Haipou Jadonang is tagged as the first tribal (Naga, Manipur) leader inspired by Gandhi's ideology (with Rani Gaidinliu in the same stream).

- N.M. Lokhande is the pioneer organiser of the Indian mill labour movement (Bombay cotton mills) — labour stream, not a tribal rising.

Barhiyataal (Munger)

- Peasant resistance demanding restoration of bakasht land.

> Logic: 2024 four-leader map = Paika–Jagabandhu, Bareilly–Aiwaz, Malabar–Edachena, Sylhet–Radharam (4 3 1 2). 2018 unmatched = Ahom 1815.
>
> [!TIP] Exam Anchor (UPPCS 2024 Q138): Crucial Leaders Match: Paika Rebellion (1817) led by Bakshi Jagabandhu (Bidyadhar Mahapatra); Bareilly (1816) led by Mufti Muhammad Aiwaz; Malabar (1802) led by Edachena Kungan; Sylhet (Pratapgarh) led by Radharam.
>
> [!TIP] Exam Anchor (UPPCS 2018 Q23): Revolt year trap: Ahom Revolt occurred in 1828 (led by Gomdhar Kunwar), NOT 1815. Santhal = 1855, Kol = 1831, Khasi = 1829.

8.10 Moplah Rebellion (1921)

Year: 1921 (outbreak 20 August 1921)

Region: Malabar — especially Ernad and Valluvanad taluks (present Kerala)

Leaders: Ali Musliyar; Variyamkunnath Kunjahammed Haji

- The 2024 Malabar match-tag is a different stream. That list wants Edachena Kungan, not the 1921 Moplah leaders.

Causes

- Moplah (Mapilla) tenants held land under the jenmi (landlord) system. Tenure was insecure; rents, renewal fees and eviction were common.
- Agrarian tension in Malabar was older than 1921. Khilafat and Non-Cooperation (असहयोग) gave it a political spark.

Course

- The large outbreak followed a British search at the Tirurangadi mosque area on 20 August 1921.
- Rebels attacked unpopular landlords, police stations, courts and colonial offices. A parallel Khilafat administration was attempted in places.
- The government imposed martial law. Later phases saw communal killings; the root remains tenancy, not "only a riot".

Results

- The Wagon Tragedy (November 1921): about 70 Moplah prisoners suffocated in a closed railway wagon.

- By late 1921 the revolt was crushed. Ali Musliyar was captured and hanged; Variyamkunnath was shot.
- Chronology: Home Rule (1916) → Jallianwala (1919) → Khilafat (1919) → Moplah (1921, last).

> Logic: Moplah = 1921 Malabar tenants. Not Bardoli 1928. Not 1919. Patel did not lead it.
>
> [!TIP] Exam Anchor (UPPCS 2023 Q47): Chronological sequence: Home Rule (1916) → Rowlatt / Jallianwala Bagh (April 1919) → Khilafat (1919–20) → Moplah Rebellion (August 1921) — Moplah was the latest event.

8.11 Tebhaga Movement (1946–47)

Year: 1946–47

Region: Bengal — especially Dinajpur, Rangpur, Jalpaiguri, 24 Parganas, Mymensingh

Demand: sharecroppers (bargadars) keep two-thirds (te-bhaga) of the crop; landlord gets one-third

Against: jotedars (rich tenants / landlords), not European indigo planters

Causes

- Custom was half-and-half. The tiller wanted 2/3 because he supplied labour, cattle and seed.
- The Floud Commission (1938–40) had already recommended a two-thirds share for the bargadar, but the government did not enforce it.

Course

- The Bengal Provincial Kisan Sabha and CPI cadres organised harvest-time action: peasants stacked paddy in their own khamar (yard) instead of the jotedar's.
- Women played a visible role in guarding the crop. The red flag of the Kisan Sabha was common in the north Bengal belt.
- Jotedars and police hit back. The movement was strongest in 1946 and faded in 1947 amid communal partition violence.

Results

- Later bargadar laws in independent Bengal partly answered the same demand.
- Place Tebhaga after Bardoli (1928) and at the end of the colonial peasant timeline.

> Logic: Tebhaga = Bengal 1946–47 + 2/3 share. Eka = Awadh 1921–22. Bardoli = Gujarat 1928 no-tax.

8.12 Telangana Peasant Movement (1946–51)

Region: Nalgonda, Warangal (वारंगल), Khammam belt of the Hyderabad State (Telangana country, not British India directly)

Against:deshmukhs and jagirdars (big landlords), the Nizam's illegal grain levy, and vetti (unpaid forced labour)

Organisers: Andhra Mahasabha, then the Communist Party of India (CPI)-led Andhra Mahasabha; armed squads called dalams

Key names: Puchalapalli Sundarayya, Ravi Narayan Reddy, Chandra Rajeswara Rao, Devulapalli Venkateswara Rao, Makhdoom Mohiuddin (poet-organiser)

Causes

- Peasants in the Nizam's Telangana country faced vetti begar, illegal cesses, and eviction by deshmukhs who doubled as revenue farmers and moneylenders.
- The Andhra Mahasabha, originally a moderate (नरम दल) cultural-political body, radicalised through the 1940s as Communists took its leadership.

Course

- The spark in 1946 was resistance to grain requisitioning and to a deshmukh (देशमुख)'s attempt to grab peasant land at Kadavendi (Warangal). Armed dalams began seizing landlord land and redistributing it to the tiller.
- The Nizam's private militia, the Razakars under Kasim Rizvi, was used to crush the peasants and terrorise Hindus in the state; this connects Telangana to the wider Hyderabad-accession crisis.
- India's Police Action ("Operation Polo," September 1948) ended the Nizam's independent rule and merged Hyderabad into the Indian Union. The peasant struggle continued after Police Action, now against the same landlords under the Indian administration — this is the trap: 1948 ends the Nizam, not the movement.
- At its peak the movement's dalams controlled villages across roughly 3,000 villages, redistributed close to a million acres, and ran village communes with their own courts (gram raj).

Results

- The CPI withdrew the armed struggle in October 1951, ahead of the first general elections, on a changed party line. That withdrawal — not the Nizam's defeat — is the correct end date, 1951.
- Telangana is the largest and only sustained armed peasant insurrection in the freedom-and-early-Republic period, distinct from Tebhaga's disciplined harvest-time civil action.
- It fed directly into the post-Independence push for land-ceiling and tenancy-reform legislation in Andhra/Hyderabad and beyond.

> Logic: Telangana = 1946–51, Nizam's Hyderabad, CPI-led *dalams. Do not stop the movement at Police Action 1948; the correct closing year is 1951. Do not merge with Tebhaga (Bengal, 1946–47, > sharecrop share).

8.13 Bardoli Satyagraha (1928)

Year: 1928

Region: Bardoli (बारडोली) taluka, Surat district, Gujarat (Bombay Presidency)

Leader: Vallabhbhai Patel

Causes

- The Bombay government raised land revenue in Bardoli by about 22 per cent (a 30 per cent hike had been discussed) despite falling prices and peasant distress.

Course

- Peasants, including many Patidar cultivators, refused to pay the enhanced demand. This was a no-tax satyagraha, not an armed tribal revolt.
- Patel organised volunteers, village committees, and social boycott of those who paid or helped attachment of property.
- The government attached land, cattle and houses, but the satyagraha held firm.
- Women (Mithuben Petit and local cadres) ran pickets and relief. Gandhi blessed the struggle from a distance; the field commander was Patel.

Results

- An inquiry (Maxwell–Broomfield) found the enhancement unjust, and the hike was cut. The campaign is remembered as a success.
- Women of Bardoli hailed Patel as Sardar; Gandhi's recognition of that title stuck from this victory.
- Compare: Kheda 1918 is an earlier Gujarat revenue satyagraha; Moplah 1921 is Malabar violence; Tebhaga 1946 is a Bengal produce-share movement.

> Logic: Bardoli 1928 = Patel + revenue enhancement. Not 1921. Not Birsa. Not tebhaga.

Bijolia Peasant Movement (Mewar / Rajasthan)

- Often keyed as India's first / longest princely-state peasant movement against feudal exactions in Bijolia (Mewar).
- Early lead: Sadhu Sitaram Das; later Vijay Singh Pathik. Papers such as Prayag (प्रयाग)'s Abhyudaya and Calcutta's Bharat Mitra publicised it.
- Do not invent a Pathik–Gandhi briefing as a must-score fact; the press publicity is the safer statement.

Bhoodan Movement (from 1951)

- Vinoba Bhave began Bhoodan at Pochampalli (Telangana / then Andhra) on 18 April 1951, when zamindar Ramchandra Reddy donated land for Harijan families.
- Aim: voluntary land gifts for the landless (a large acreage target through the 1950s). Jayaprakash Narayan later joined the constructive stream.

8.14 Labour Movement, Trade Union Congress and Labour Organisations

- N.M. Lokhande is remembered as the pioneer who organised Bombay mill workers in the late nineteenth century — the labour-stream opener before AITUC politics.

> One-home rule: this card keeps only the founding facts of each union/federation (year, place, first name). The Workers and Peasants Party, Congress Socialist Party, and the fuller left-politics story behind these unions live in Topic 12 (Home Rule & Labour Politics). Do not duplicate that depth here.

Body	Year	tag
Madras Labour Union	1918	B.P. / V.P. Wadia — first modern mill union (Buckingham & Carnatic (कर्नाटक))
Ahmedabad (अहमदाबाद) Textile Labour Association	1918	Gandhi
ILO Washington (labour rep)	1919	N.M. Joshi
AITUC	31 Oct 1920 (Bombay)	First all-India TUC; Lala Lajpat Rai first president; UPPCS party map CPI
Trade Unions Act	1926	Legal recognition of unions
Workers and Peasants Party	provincial mid-1920s; All-India Dec 1928	Work inside Congress (All-India form December 1928, not 1927)
Girni Kamgar Union	1928	Bombay mill workers; left leadership
INTUC	1947	Congress
HMS	1948	Socialist stream
UTUC	1949	Historically RSP; UPPCS 2022 maps CPI(M)
BMS	1955	Dattopant Thengadi; BJP / RSS
CITU	1970	Actual CPI(M) centre — trap vs UTUC

- Modern mills, mines, railways and plantations created a wage-working class different from rural bonded labour.
- Early strikes appeared in Bombay textiles and on the railways.
- Tilak (तिलक)'s 1908 Bombay strike is a nationalist–labour link. It is not yet an all-India union.

- Madras Labour Union was founded in 1918.
- It is associated with V.P. Wadia and mill organising. It is the stock "first modern trade union" tag.
- In 1919 the Government of India sent N.M. Joshi as labour representative to the first ILO conference at Washington. Joshi belonged to the Servants of India Society and later helped build AITUC as a moderate organiser.
- AITUC was founded on 31 October 1920 at Bombay.
- Lala Lajpat Rai was the first president.
- Joseph Baptista (बैपटिस्टा) and N.M. Joshi were in the early leadership.
- This is the syllabus Trade Union Congress.
- The Trade Unions Act, 1926 gave unions legal recognition (register, sue, be sued).
- The Workers and Peasants Party grew in the provinces in the mid-1920s.
- Its All-India form is clearer in December 1928.
- It tried to work inside Congress and radicalise it.
- The Workers and Peasants Party was not formed in 1927 and given All-India form in one breath; its All-India conference came in December 1928.
- Girni Kamgar Union (1928), Bombay, led mill strikes under left / communist leadership (S.A. Dange and others).
- After independence unions split by party.
- INTUC was founded in 1947 and is mapped to Congress.
- HMS was founded in 1948 in the socialist stream.
- UTUC was founded in 1949. Historically it is RSP; keys often map it to CPI(M).
- BMS was founded in 1955 by Dattopant Thengadi and is mapped to BJP / RSS.
- CITU was founded in 1970. It is the actual CPI(M) centre. That is the trap against UTUC.
- N.M. Joshi was India's labour representative at the 1919 ILO Washington summit, not Wadia, Andrews or Baptista.
- Post-independence union–party pairs: BMS–BJP; INTUC–Congress; UTUC–CPI(M); AITUC–CPI.

> Logic: Joshi = ILO 1919. AITUC = 1920. INTUC = 1947 Congress. BMS = 1955 BJP.
>
> [!TIP] Exam Anchor (UPPCS 2020 Q16): At the 1919 Washington Summit of the International Labour Organisation (ILO), N.M. Joshi was deputed as the workers representative of India, with B.P. Wadia as advisor.
>
> [!TIP] Exam Anchor (UPPCS 2024 Q14): Workers and Peasants Party (WPP) was formed across Bombay, Bengal, Punjab, and UP (1926–1928) and culminated in an All-India organization in December 1928 (at Calcutta). Its primary objective was to radicalize the Congress from within.

[!TIP] Exam Anchor (UPPCS 2022 Q123): Trade Union Political Affiliations: BMS (Bharatiya Mazdoor Sangh) ↔ BJP; INTUC ↔ Indian National Congress; AITUC ↔ CPI; UTUC ↔ CPI(M) (and Revolutionary Socialist Party).

8.15 Bonded Labour Practices

- Bonded labour (बंधुआ मज़दूरी - जैसे बिहार-झारखंड में कमिया/कमियौती प्रथा [Kamiuti / Kamia], हरवाही प्रथा) is work tied by debt or custom so the worker cannot leave freely. The loan never clears; the family often inherits the debt.
- Begar (बेगार - निःशुल्क/बलपूर्वक श्रम) is unpaid labour taken by landlords, taluqdars or officials. It was a core Awadh and tribal grievance (Eka, Tana Bhagat, Kol, Munda).
- Indigo dadon (दादनी प्रथा - अग्रिम पेशगी) tied Bengal ryots into unfree crop contracts. That is crop bondage, not a mill wage.
- Deccan sahukars (साहूकार) and Santhal mahajans (महाजन) used bond papers as weapons. Burning those papers in 1875 was an attack on bondage, not random loot.
- Plantation and arkatti (अरकाठी प्रथा) recruitment in Assam also used advances and penal contracts (a related unfree-labour story).
- Article 23 of the Constitution prohibits traffic in human beings and begar (बेगार) / similar forms of forced labour (बलात् श्रम).
- The Bonded Labour System (Abolition) Act, 1976 [बंधुआ श्रम प्रणाली (उन्मूलन) अधिनियम, 1976] is the main statute after independence. It frees bonded labourers and extinguishes the debt.
- AITUC (1920) organised factory wage workers. It did not abolish village bondage.

Logic: Bondage here = debt, indigo advances, diku moneylenders, begar. Not the same as INTUC/AITUC mill unions. Act = 1976, not 1920.
