Topic 10 — Books & Authors

> Sources baked in: Spectrum, Bipan Chandra, Ghatnachakra Purvalokan (Books & Authors), UPPCS Prelims 2018–2025 Weight: ★★★ — book↔author matching, year traps, freedom-movement classics, Bhojpuri Last verified: September 2026 gap audit — magazines/newspapers card filled; Master Match Bandi Jivan row fixed; Extra Drill present (no invented mega banks) Current Affairs: N/A for the syllabus eight (skip Sen/Booker/Kalidasa CA)

10.0 One clear picture — sorting the books by type

Do not memorise books as one long list. Sort every title into one of these five buckets first; the year and twin-trap follow naturally.

Bucket	What it covers	Anchor titles
Primary political tracts	Written during the freedom struggle to argue a position	Poverty and Un-British Rule, Hind Swaraj, Gulamgiri, Annihilation of Caste, The Indian War of Independence
Memoirs / autobiographies	First-person freedom-struggle accounts	India Wins Freedom, The Story of My Deportation, A Nation in Making, My Experiments with Truth, An Indian Pilgrim
Later historiography	Written about the nationalist age, not during it	The Rise and Growth of Economic Nationalism in India (Bipan Chandra), Economic History of India (R.C. Dutt)
GG / Viceroy-linked	Written by or closely tied to a Governor-General (गवर्नर-जनरल)/Viceroy (वायसराय)	Problems of the Far East, My Indian Years, and the GG teaching card below
Partition and post-Independence narrative	Focused on 1946–48 endgame	India Wins Freedom, India Divided, Pakistan or the Partition of India, Freedom at Midnight, Train to Pakistan
Social / regional / caste literature	Anti-caste tracts, Bhojpuri works, realist novels	Gulamgiri, Annihilation of Caste, Bhojpuri four, Premchand's novels

> Logic: A book "written in 1901 about the drain" is a primary tract; a book "written about 1901-era economics decades later" is historiography. That single test settles most Naoroji-vs-Bipan-Chandra traps.

10.1 Master Match Table

Book	Author	Tag
Planned Economy for India	M. Visvesvaraya	1934 ten-year plan ideas
Vital-Vidhvansak	Gopal Baba Walangkar	First monthly for untouchable readers (1888)
Vanguard	M.N. Roy	Emigre communist journal
Bapu: My Mother	Manubehn Gandhi	Memoir
New India / The Commonweal	Annie Besant (बेसेंट)	Papers from 1914; Central Hindu College 1898

> Logic: Drill the 2020 four and Poverty 1901 first. Then twins. Then Bhojpuri four. Then the Savarkar/Mayo/GG additions.

10.1a Magazines and newspapers — match traps

Extra Drill leans hard on paper ↔ editor. Hold this spine before the book cards.

Paper / magazine	Editor / founder	Tag
Kesari* / *Mahratta	B.G. Tilak	Marathi / English; Extremist (गरम दल) Poona press
New India* / *Commonweal	Annie Besant	Home Rule (होम रूल) papers from 1914
Young India* / *Harijan (हरिजन)	M.K. Gandhi	Newspapers — not Lajpat Rai's Young India book
Bande Mataram	Aurobindo Ghosh (editor)	Swadeshi Bengal daily
Yugantar	Barindra circle	Revolutionary Bengal weekly
The Indian Sociologist	Shyamji Krishna Varma	London / India House (इंडिया हाउस)
The Bengalee	Surendranath Banerjee	Moderate (नरम दल) Bengal press
The Hindu	G. Subramania Iyer (start 1878)	Madras; linked to Mahajan Sabha (सभा)
Bangadarshan	Bankim Chandra	Literary–nationalist journal
Amrita Bazar Patrika	Ghosh brothers / Sisir Kumar Ghosh stream	Bengal nationalist daily

- Young India as a newspaper = Gandhi. Young India as a book in match sets = Lala Lajpat Rai.
- New India = Besant. Do not give it to Tilak (Kesari / Mahratta).
- Bande Mataram the paper is Aurobindo's line; the song Vande Mataram is Bankim's (Anandamath).

> Logic: Sort paper vs book first. Then editor. That kills most magazine Extra Drill traps.

10.2 Anandamath and Bankim Chandra Chattopadhyay

Author: Bankim Chandra Chattopadhyay (1838–1894) Novel:*Anandamath (1882) Song inside it:Vande Mataram (later India's national song)

- Bankim is the father-figure of the modern Bengali novel and of literary nationalism.
- His earlier novels include Durgeshnandini (1865), the first major Bengali novel.
- Kapalkundala followed in 1866.
- Devi Chaudhurani came later, in 1884.
- Anandamath is set against the Sanyasi–Fakir rising (1763–1800 memory) and the Bengal famine background. Coaching keys often call it the "Bible of Bengali patriotism."
- Sannyasi rebels fight a tyrannical order.
- The Mother-as-nation image is sung as Vande Mataram.
- The song was sung in the Swadeshi (स्वदेशी) years and adopted (अंगीकृत) as national song. It is not the national anthem (Jana Gana Mana is Tagore).
- Bankim edited the journal Bangadarshan.
- Neel Darpan is not his. That indigo play is Dinabandhu Mitra (1860).

> Logic: Anandamath = Bankim 1882 + Vande Mataram. Neel Darpan = Dinabandhu Mitra.

10.2a Tagore titles that Prelims confuse

- Gitanjali: Bengali 1910; English Song Offerings November 1912; Nobel Literature 1913.
- Amar Sonar Bangla (1905, Partition/Swadeshi protest) became Bangladesh's national anthem (first ten lines, 1972). Tagore also wrote Jana Gana Mana — the rare poet of two national anthems.
- Madanapalle (Andhra) memory: Tagore rendered the anthem into English there (1919).
- Gandhi called Tagore the Great Sentinel.

> Logic: Amar Sonar Bangla ≠ Jana Gana Mana. Both Tagore; different national uses.

10.3 Poverty and Un-British Rule in India

Author:Dadabhai NaorojiYear:1901Idea:Drain of Wealth (धन निष्कासन)

- Naoroji gathered speeches and papers into this book. The year is 1901.
- "Un-British" means the Raj violated Britain's own liberal standards.
- That is the same Moderate vocabulary as 2024 Q135.

- Drain meant salaries, pensions, home charges (होम चार्जेस), profits and unequal trade (पण्याध्यक्ष) took Indian wealth to Britain.
- Poverty was produced.
- This is a primary nationalist tract, not later academic historiography.
- The Rise and Growth of Economic Nationalism in India is Bipan Chandra, not Naoroji.
- R.C. Dutt's Economic History of India is the other classic economic-nationalist book of that age.

> Logic: Naoroji book = 1901. Bipan Chandra = the Economic Nationalism historiography title.
> [!TIP] Exam Anchor (UPPCS Prelims 2021, Q139): Publication year lock: Dadabhai Naoroji's Poverty and Un-British Rule in India was published in 1901 A.D. in London.

10.4 Hind Swaraj

Author:M.K. GandhiYear:1909Language (original): Gujarati; written on the ship from London to South Africa

- Form: a dialogue between Editor and Reader on what true Swaraj is.
- Original Gujarati (1909); British banned it, so an English version followed to beat censorship. Gandhi's sharp line on the British Parliament as sterile / "prostitute" sits in this tract.
- Separate Gandhi title: Gokhale: My Political Guru (first edition Ahmedabad, February 1955).
- In 1929 at Kausani (बागेश्वर) (Uttarakhand (उत्तराखंड)) he completed the English rendering of Anasakti Yoga (योग) from the Gita — a favourite UKPCS place-fact.
- Gandhi attacks modern industrial civilisation.
- He attacks railways-as-greed, and lawyers and doctors as props of colonial society.
- He wants self-rule of the self, not a brown copy of English rule.
- Hind Swaraj is a political tract, not his autobiography.
- His autobiography is The Story of My Experiments with Truth.
- It ran as a Gujarati serial from 1925. Book form came in the late 1920s.
- Do not give Hind Swaraj to Tilak or Nehru. Tilak's Swaraj line is the speech-slogan; the 1909 book is Gandhi's.

> Logic: Hind Swaraj = Gandhi 1909. My Experiments with Truth = Gandhi autobiography. Two different books.

10.5 The Discovery of India

Author:Jawaharlal NehruWritten: Ahmednagar Fort prison, 1944Published:1946

- It is a civilisational and political narrative of India.
- It covers culture, history, and the making of a modern nation.

- It was written in jail during the Quit India (भारत छोड़ो) years.
- It is not Nehru's autobiography. Autobiography = An Autobiography / Toward Freedom (1936).
- Glimpses of World History is a third Nehru title.
- It is letters to Indira from jail in the 1930s.
- Do not give Discovery of India to Azad. Azad wrote India Wins Freedom.

> Logic: Discovery = Nehru 1946. Toward Freedom = Nehru autobiography. India Wins Freedom = Azad.

10.6 India Wins Freedom

Author:Maulana Abul Kalam AzadType: memoir of the last years of the freedom struggle and Partition politics

- Azad writes as Congress President and as a critic of the endgame.
- He discusses the Cabinet Mission (कैबिनेट मिशन), Partition, and his colleagues.
- It was first published in 1959.
- Some pages were held back and released later. The 1988 complete text is the common memory.
- India Wins Freedom is Maulana Abul Kalam Azad — not Deportation (Lajpat Rai), Gita Rahasya (Tilak) or A Nation in Making (Banerjee).
- It is not Freedom at Midnight by Collins and Lapierre.
- It is not Train to Pakistan by Khushwant Singh.
- It is not India Divided by Rajendra Prasad.

> Logic: India Wins Freedom = Azad. Freedom at Midnight = Collins & Lapierre.

10.7 Gita Rahasya

Author:Bal Gangadhar TilakContext: written in Mandalay jail (1908–14)

- Tilak read the Gita as a book of karma-yoga and nationalist duty.
- He uses the Gita to argue for action in the world, not withdrawal.
- Gita Rahasya is Bal Gangadhar Tilak (बाल गंगाधर तिलक)'s work, written during his Mandalay imprisonment.
- His other famous book is The Arctic Home in the Vedas.
- That book argues that Vedic people once lived in the Arctic. Do not swap the two.
- Gita Rahasya is not Gandhi's.
- It is not Aurobindo's. Aurobindo wrote Essays on the Gita.

> Logic: Gita Rahasya = Tilak. Arctic Home = also Tilak, different book.

10.8 Gulamgiri

Author:Jyotiba PhuleYear:1873Language: Marathi Meaning of title: slavery

- Phule dedicated the book to the American abolitionists. He compared caste oppression of Shudras and Ati-Shudras to slavery.
- It is a social tract, not a Congress memoir and not Ambedkar's 1936 text.
- Phule also wrote Shetkaryacha Asud (The Cultivator's Whipcord).
- With Savitribai he built the anti-caste school stream.
- Jyotirao Phule wrote Gulamgiri as part of the anti-caste movement.

> Logic: Gulamgiri = Phule 1873. Annihilation of Caste = Ambedkar 1936.

10.9 Books by B.R. Ambedkar

Book	Year / tag
Annihilation of Caste	1936 — written as a Jat-Pat Todak Mandal speech, then published when the invitation was withdrawn
Castes in India	1916 paper
Who Were the Shudras?	1946
The Untouchables	1948
Pakistan or the Partition of India	Partition analysis (1940s)
What Congress and Gandhi have done to the Untouchables	1945; critique of Congress caste politics
States and Minorities	1947; constitutional memorandum
The Buddha and His Dhamma	published 1957 (posthumous)
Thoughts on Linguistic States	States reorganisation

- Annihilation of Caste is the syllabus title.
- Ambedkar argues caste will not die by piety. It must be destroyed as a system.
- Gandhi replied in Harijan. Ambedkar answered in a later edition.
- Do not give Annihilation of Caste to Phule. Do not give Pakistan or the Partition of India to Jinnah. Do not give India Divided to Ambedkar (that is Rajendra Prasad).

> Logic: Ambedkar's syllabus book = Annihilation of Caste (1936). Partition title of his = Pakistan or the Partition of India.

10.10 Books on Freedom Movement and Political Books

Book	Author	Point
A Nation in Making	Surendranath Banerjee	Early Congress / Indian Association autobiography
The Story of My Deportation	Lala Lajpat Rai	Memoir of his deportation
Unhappy India	Lala Lajpat Rai	Reply to Katherine Mayo's Mother India (1927)
Young India (book)	Lala Lajpat Rai	Separate from Gandhi's Young India newspaper
The Indian Struggle	Subhas Chandra Bose	1920–42 political narrative
An Indian Pilgrim	Subhas Chandra Bose	Autobiography
The Indian War of Independence	V.D. Savarkar	1909; treats 1857 as a national war
Why I Am an Atheist	Bhagat Singh	Essay from jail
History of the Indian National Congress	Pattabhi Sitaramayya	Official Congress history
Satyarth Prakash	Dayanand Saraswati	Arya Samaj doctrine
Tuhfat-ul-Muwahhidin	Rammohan Roy	Gift to Monotheists; original Persian
Causes of the Indian Mutiny	Sir Syed Ahmad Khan	1857 causes
Bandi Jivan	Sachindranath Sanyal	Revolutionary primer
The Indian Sociologist	Shyamji Krishna Varma	London
The Springing Tiger	Hugh Toye	Bose biography
Indian Unrest	Valentine Chirol	Anti-Tilak imperial tract
Guilty Men of India's Partition	Ram Manohar Lohia
The Man Who Divided India	Rafiq Zakaria
Desher Katha	Sakharam Ganesh Deuskar	Swadeshi mind-conquest warning

- Four often-matched titles: Deportation–Lajpat Rai; Gita Rahasya–Tilak; A Nation in Making–Banerjee; India Wins Freedom–Azad.

> Logic: Mother India = Mayo. Unhappy India = Lajpat Rai. Never swap.
> [!TIP] Exam Anchor (UPPCS Prelims 2020, Q26): Match locks: The Story of My Deportation = Lala Lajpat Rai | Gita Rahasya = Bal Gangadhar Tilak | A Nation in Making = Surendranath Banerjee | India Wins Freedom = Maulana Abul Kalam Azad.

10.11 The Indian War of Independence (V.D. Savarkar)

Author:Vinayak Damodar (दामोदर) SavarkarYear:1909Original title / language: written in Marathi, published in English translation from London; the book was banned by the colonial government immediately

- Savarkar wrote the book while a law student in London, associated with India House and the revolutionary circle around Shyamji Krishna Varma.
- The book's core argument is that 1857 was not a mere "Mutiny" but India's first war of independence (प्रथम स्वतंत्रता संग्राम) — a planned, national rising against foreign rule.
- It celebrated leaders of 1857 (Nana Sahib (नाना साहेब), Tantia Tope (तात्या टोपे), Rani Lakshmibai (रानी लक्ष्मीबाई), Bahadur Shah Zafar (बहादुर शाह ज़फ़र)) as freedom fighters, not rebels or sepoys acting from narrow grievance.
- The British banned the book in India even before publication; copies were smuggled in and secretly reprinted, including under false covers.
- It became a foundational text for the revolutionary stream of nationalism (Topic 11), read by groups like the Abhinav Bharat society that Savarkar himself helped found.
- Do not confuse this history with Bankim's Anandamath (1882 novel, Sanyasi-rising background) or with Sir Syed Ahmad Khan's Causes of the Indian Mutiny (a loyalist, causes-only analysis from the opposite political direction).
- Savarkar's other major book is Hindutva: Who is a Hindu? (1923) — a separate ideological work, not an 1857 history. Keep the two Savarkar titles apart.

> Logic: The Indian War of Independence = Savarkar, 1909, 1857 as a national war. Hindutva (1923) is Savarkar's different ideological book — do not merge the two.

10.12 Mother India and Unhappy India

Book	Author	Year	Tag
Mother India	Katherine Mayo (American writer)	1927	Hostile tract painting Indian society as backward; used to argue India was unfit for self-rule
Unhappy India	Lala Lajpat Rai	1928	Point-by-point reply to Mayo, defending Indian society and exposing the book's colonial motive

- Katherine Mayo researched Mother India with covert encouragement from British officials keen to counter the growing self-rule demand; the book focused heavily on sanitation, child marriage and sexuality to paint a picture of Indian incapacity for self-government.
- Indian nationalists across the spectrum condemned the book as imperialist propaganda dressed as social reportage. Gandhi famously called it a "gutter inspector's report."
- Lala Lajpat Rai, already known for The Story of My Deportation, wrote Unhappy India* (1928) as the most cited nationalist rebuttal, defending Indian civilisation while conceding genuine social evils needed indigenous reform, not colonial lecturing.
- Do not give Mother India to an Indian author, and do not give Unhappy India to Mayo — the pairing only works as attack / reply.

> Logic: Mother India = Mayo, 1927, hostile. Unhappy India = Lajpat Rai, 1928, reply. Never swap author or direction of argument.

10.13 History Books and Historiography

Book	Author	Use
The Rise and Growth of Economic Nationalism in India	Bipan Chandra	How drain/poverty critique became a nationalist school
Economic History of India	R.C. Dutt	Contemporary economic-nationalist history
Poverty and Un-British Rule in India	Naoroji	Primary drain tract (1901)
The Indian War of Independence	Savarkar	1857 as war of independence
The Discovery of India	Nehru	Interpretive national history

- Bipan Chandra wrote The Rise and Growth of Economic Nationalism in India. Distractors often name Partha Sarathi Gupta, S. Gopal or B.R. Nanda.
- Naoroji and Dutt wrote in the nationalist age. Bipan Chandra wrote later about that age.
- Ancient/medieval match sets (Jayaswal (जयसवाल) Hindu Polity, Basham (बैशम), Kosambi (कोसांबी), V.A. Smith (स्मिथ)) are not this Modern India core. Skip 2024 Q134 here.

> Logic: Exact title Rise and Growth of Economic Nationalism in India = Bipan Chandra.
> [!TIP] Exam Anchor (UPPCS Prelims 2019, Q97): Historiography lock: The Rise and Growth of Economic Nationalism in India: Economic Policies of Indian National Leadership, 1880–1905 was written by Bipin Chandra.

10.14 Books Related to Governors-General and Books on Partition

Viceroys / GG-linked

Book	Author	Tag
Problems of the Far East (1894)	Lord Curzon	Written before his viceroyalty, on Asian geopolitics
British Government in India (1925)	Lord Curzon	Later reflective work on Indian administration
My Indian Years, 1910–1916	Lord Hardinge	Viceroy memoir; covers the Delhi Durbar and the bomb attack on him (1912)
Lucile (poem, pen name Owen Meredith)	Lord Lytton	Written before his viceroyalty; Lytton is remembered in politics for Proud Reserve
The Viceroy's Journal (published 1973, posthumous)	Lord Wavell	Diary covering the final Partition years, edited by Penderel Moon
Patronage (not authorship) of the first English Gita translation by Charles Wilkins (1785)	Warren Hastings (वारेन)	Wrote the preface encouraging Orientalist (प्राच्यवादी) scholarship; not himself the Gita's translator

Partition set

Book	Author
India Wins Freedom	Azad
Pakistan or the Partition of India	Ambedkar
India Divided	Rajendra Prasad
Freedom at Midnight	Larry Collins and Dominique Lapierre
Train to Pakistan	Khushwant Singh

- Curzon wrote two -relevant books: the earlier Problems of the Far East and the later British Government in India. Either can be the "Curzon" answer; the safer single tag remains Problems of the Far East.
- Hardinge's Indian memoir tag is My Indian Years. Do not swap Curzon and Hardinge.
- Lord Lytton, remembered for the forward "Proud Reserve" Afghan policy, wrote poetry as Owen Meredith before becoming Viceroy — a literary-GG trap distinct from the political-policy Lytton.
- Lord Wavell's diary was compiled and published only after his death; it is not a book he wrote for release in his lifetime.
- Warren Hastings did not translate the Gita himself; he patronised and prefaced Charles Wilkins's 1785 translation — a common "who translated" trap.
- Freedom at Midnight is popular narrative of the Mountbatten–Partition months, not Azad's memoir.
- Train to Pakistan is fiction of Partition violence, not a political tract.

> Logic: India Divided = Rajendra Prasad. Pakistan or the Partition of India = Ambedkar. Freedom at Midnight ≠ Azad. Warren Hastings patronised, did not translate, the Gita.

10.15 Realistic Novels

- A realistic novel shows social reality: peasant debt, gender, hypocrisy.
- It is not Bankim's political romance.
- Premchand (Dhanpat Rai Srivastava) is the UP-safe name.
- Major works include Godaan, Gaban, Sevasadan and Nirmala.
- The story Kafan is also his.
- He wrote in Hindi and Urdu. His Urdu name was Nawab Rai.
- Godaan is a peasant and landlord rural tragedy.
- Gaban is about middle-class greed.
- Sevasadan is about women's social reform.
- Anandamath is not a Premchand-style realist novel. Bidesiya is folk-drama, not a Hindi realist novel.

> Logic: Godaan / Gaban = Premchand. Anandamath = Bankim.

10.16 Bhojpuri Literature (UP Focus)

Work	Author	Year / tag
Firangiya / Firangia	Manoranjan Prasad Sinha	1921, Non-Cooperation (असहयोग); anti-British Bhojpuri poem
Batohiya	Raghuveer Narayan	1911; patriotic traveller-song; often called Vande Mataram of Bhojpuri
Bidesiya	Bhikhari Thakur (भिखारी ठाकुर)	Migrant folk-drama; Shakespeare of Bhojpuri
Achhut Kee Shikayat	Heera Dom	1914; printed in Saraswati (सरस्वती), Allahabad (इलाहाबाद); early Dalit (दलित) protest poem
Beti Bechwa, Gabarghichor, Bhai Birodh	Bhikhari Thakur	Other social plays
Mehrarun ke Durdasa, Naiki Duniya	Rahul Sankrityayan	Bhojpuri plays (second-line recall)

- Firangiya is the RO-ARO / UP culture favourite. Author is Manoranjan Prasad Sinha (keys also print Singh). Not Thakur, not Raghuveer Narayan.
- Batohiya the poem is Raghuveer Narayan. A character called Batohiya also appears inside Thakur's Bidesiya. Do not merge poem and character.
- Bidesiya is about bidesh (migration) and the household left behind.
- That is an eastern UP / Bihar social fact.
- Heera Dom is not Bhikhari Thakur.

> Logic: Firangiya → Sinha 1921. Batohiya → Raghuveer Narayan. Bidesiya → Bhikhari Thakur. Achhut Kee Shikayat → Heera Dom.
